The success of Ensemble Vivant's debut recording, Palm Court Pleasures, led to the group's much requested sequel, Palm Court Encores, initially released in 1991 on the Pro Arte Label. Comprised of Catherine Wilson, piano/artistic director, Marie Bérard, violin and Amanda Forsyth, cello, Ensemble Vivant was first known as Trio Vivant. As with Palm Court Pleasures, Palm Court Encores was featured by the Columbia Record Club, and was a best seller that enjoyed frequent airplay internationally. Ensemble Vivant's uniquely diverse repertoire ranges from classical to jazz, Tin Pan Alley, tango and ragtime, and includes original compositions written in the classical and jazz genres. Critically acclaimed at the time of its release, it is not surprising that Palm Court Encores has become a classic, remaining in demand world-wide.
