THE ACT COMPANY

what a precious gift life is.
as i get older i tend to embrace and enjoy it more intense everyday.
the change of season, winter turns to spring with budding magnolias and cherry blossom. summer comes and the baltic sea where we live is warming up, slowly. the mild august when the waters are welcoming my attempts to take a swim.
then october comes and the leaves turns to gold.
with november, winter slowly starts to take a firm grip over our part of the world and the cycle starts all over again.
to be fortunate enough to experience all these small wonders together with the one i love more than anything is a true blessing.
to be able to express my gratitude to life and everything that comes with it through music is something i am very grateful for and as i know that my life will not last forever, at least the music i chose to record and perform might linger a little longer.
i always try to find music and lyrics that somehow are expressing the way i think and feel.
the songs on this album are no exception.
together with my fellow musicians that fortune brought me, i have tried to embody my inner visions.
to me, this collection of songs paints a musical picture of eternal beauty.
i hope you will enjoy it.
love,

Nils
